

Hot Dogs and Fairy Dust

August 12th, 2017

The first paragraph of a blog post will be really big. Soo big that you want to come up and eat it. Like a big hot dog with cheese and a great 'ol bun.

The second paragrpah will be smaller cause thats what happens. The bun dissapears, then the toppings, then the wiener. The hot dog will be just an idea in your mind when it is gone, which is both sad and magical.
